

Vision, Strategy, Mission.

Whether you are an entrepreneur with an idea, a start-up, or an existing enterprise, sometimes you need help. A problem for many is the cost of “business consultants” is often beyond the reach of small business owners.

We are sensitive to the fact that even though you may be at the idea stage, or own a small enterprise, your business can grow, and we want to grow with you.

For this reason, we provide a range of business services to help you get from where you are now to where you want to be.

The Hart Group collaborates with our clients to deliver affordable solutions that resolve a variety of issues for entrepreneurs and small businesses. Utilizing our experience and functional expertise, HGO provides a range of solutions to help business owners achieve their goals and objectives, and drive tangible results.

HGO Web Services - Having a website no longer a luxury for small businesses, it is a necessity. Unfortunately, web development services tend to be priced beyond the reach of startups and small business owners...until now. Download HGO Web Services Brochure

HGO Government Contract Procurement Services - The federal government is the world’s largest purchaser of goods and services, spending billions each year for everything from office supplies and equipment to large defense contracts, and more. If you are a manufacturer, or distributor, or even a retailer of specialized products, chances are there is a government contract you could compete to win. There are also contracting opportunities at the local, city, county, and state levels of government as well. Download HGO Government Contracting Services Brochure
